The Daily Union Vedette.

TUESDAY MORNING. JULY 24, 1866.

The Gold and Cotton Crops.

Under the above heading the Springfield Republican publishes an elaborate article in which it proves that the gold and silver mines of the United States will produce half as many dollars this year as the cotton crop, to which Secretary McCulloch is looking for so much help in paying off the National debt.

In speaking of the cotton crop it says: The general prospects are good; the most hopeless and unbelieving rebels do not place the crop below a million and a half of bales; and other judgments range from this to three million bales.—It is quite within bounds, we think, to expect a crop of two million bales, or eight hundred million pounds. The price is now 40c a pound. Estimate it at 25c, at which rate it can command the English markets, and we have two hundred million dollars from this source alone.

This sum is probably twice the year's product of gold and silver. The most intelligent estimates place the yield, in precious metals, of all our mining States and Territories at one hundred millions. This will be at least one-third more than that of 1865 or any other year. Last year's products are estimated at about $75,000,000.

Our own conviction is that these figures are too high; but so great a proportion of the product of our mining districts comes to market in private bags and boxes, often carefully concealed; so much that does get recorded at the mints or in express offices gets counted twice; and so loose and exaggerated are the ideas and estimates of the people of the newer and richer mining districts, that it is impossible to reach more than an approximation of the truth,—with the feeling that this must be generally too high.

But whether our gold and silver crop in 1865 was fifty or seventy-five millions, or half way between these figures, we may safely count on its being full twenty-five millions more this year.

Our year's product of a hundred millions in gold and silver will be full two-thirds of that of the whole world; or about the same proportion as our cotton crop bears to the grand total of that staple. Austria, Russia, Mexico and South America are good for about fifty millions. With such preponderating possession of these great elements of wealth—of the real wealth itself,—we have only to fear our own folly or cowardice in the safe and speedy reconstruction of our financial and business systems, in the prompt settlement of our accounts with the world, and in our continuous and rapid progress in national power and renown.

High Pressure Life.

Lives are worn out faster here in California than anywhere else, perhaps, in the world. Men who come of long-lived families, and whose fathers and grandfathers, uncles and aunts, died at seventy and eighty, here drop off at forty and forty-five; fifty is here a rare age to attain, and sixty years very rare.—Sudden deaths, too, are the rule and not the exception. The diseases that carry men off are not, as a general thing, fevers, consumption, contagious diseases, etc.; they are diseases caused by overwork, fast living, long continued excitement; by keeping the machinery going too steadily, by lack of repose or rest or quiet. A fire that is kept burning in full blast soon burns out, and here we "keep the blower up" all the time. It is true we have our "recreations," but they are not rest. Our enjoyments are as "wearing" as our work, for we have no calm or quiet enjoyments. From the rush of business we turn to the whirl of pleasure; from (wearing) laboring to shattering excitements—sometimes to wasting dissipation. Body or brain, and sometimes both, are kept on the strain. We go upon the high-pressure plan, and keep the steam up and the engine going until the machinery suddenly gives out or the boiler bursts. Heart disease, brain disease, paralysis, cerebral apoplexy, short, sharp, sudden attacks that result from over-strained nerves—these are what sweep us away. In a copy of the New York Herald, received by the last steamer but one, we find a list of twenty deaths, in which there were two persons over 90, five over 80 and under 90, seven over 70 and under 80, and only three under 60. Now, it is certain that the prevalence of early deaths here is not to be attributed to the climate, which is quite as healthy, to say the least, as that of New York. It is owing to our modes of business and our modes of life. In order to live long, it is requisite to live slowly and to live naturally. The strongest constitution must give way prematurely under the influence of a pressure that is never relaxed, or an excitement that is never remitted. As we must die at some time, it may seem of little importance whether it be ten or fifteen years sooner or later. But in reality every premature death is an unnatural and "violent" death that interferes with that full development which is the best happiness of life; and besides, there is no true happiness in the life that is one continual whirl, even while it lasts.—Dramatic Chronicle.

THE PERIL OF DEBT.—The English Chancellor of the Exchequer lately illustrated the pleasing and insidious approach of debt by the following stern and beautiful figure:

There is nothing so insidious as financial difficulty. It approaches with smiles and caresses. Borrowing for the first time appears open to no objection. There is nothing in it alarming or menacing. It is like the cub of of the lioness, spoken of by one of the Greek poets, which was easily taken by the hunter into his house. When it was young it was reared with his dogs and played among his children. It was mild in temper and fawned upon every one. But when it grew up and felt its strength it deluged the house with gore.

BY PACIFIC TELEGRAPH.

[SPECIAL TO THE DAILY UNION VEDETTE.]

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

Washington, July 21.

The Senate, after debate, passed the resolution submitting Tennessee, amended to read as follows:

Whereas, In the year 1861 the government of the State of Tennessee was seized upon and taken possession of by persons in hostility to the United States, and the inhabitants of said State, in pursuance of act of Congress, were declared to be in a state of insurrection against the United States; and

Whereas, Said State government can only be restored to its former relations in the Union by consent of the law-making powers of the United States; and

Whereas, The people of the United States, in said State, did, on the 22d of July, 1865, by a large popular vote, adopt and ratify the Constitution and government, republican in form, and not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of the United States, whereby Slavery is abolished and the ordinance and laws of secession, and debts contracted under the same, were declared void; and

Whereas, The State Government has ratified the amendment to the Constitution of the United States abolishing slavery, and also the amendment by the 39th Congress; and

Whereas, The body of the people of Tennessee have, by a proper spirit of obedience, shown to the satisfaction of the Congress of the United States a return of said State to allegiance to the government of the United States,

Therefore, Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That the State of Tennessee shall be restored to her former proper practical relation to the Union, and be again entitled to be represented by Senators and Representatives in Congress.

Messrs Bucanlew, Brown, Brown, McDougall and Sumner alone voted in the negative.

The resolution now returns to the House, and will be concurred in immediately.

HOUSE.

Washington, July 21.

The House heard Rosseau in explanation of his conduct, after which the Speaker pronounced a reprimand, and Rosseau tendered his resignation.

Foreign News.

Vienna, July 10.

The emperor of Austria has issued a manifesto in which he says, the heavy misfortunes which have befallen his army of the north, moved to its inmost core his heart, but the reliance he had placed upon the devotion of his people, the courage of his army, upon God, his good and sacred right, had not wavered one single instant. He had addressed himself to the Emperor of the French, requesting his good offices for bringing up an armistice with Italy. Not only had the Emperor readily responded but had offered to mediate with Prussia for a suspension of hostilities and for opening of negotiations for peace. This offer accepts and announces himself prepared to make peace upon honorable conditions to prevent bloodshed and the ravages of war; but he would not make peace by which Austria's position, as a great power, would be shaken. Sooner than this, he would carry on war to the utmost extremity. All available troops are being concentrated, and gaps in the ranks filled by conscripts, and volunteers are called to arms by newly awakened spirit of patriotism. Austria has been severely visited by misfortune, but she is not humiliated nor bowed down.

The Paris Press says, the following are the negotiations by representatives of the belligerents: The German Confederation to be dissolved and another confederation to be established, of which neither Prussia nor Austria should form part. No cession to be demanded of Austria. The abandonment by letter of Herrinth in the Duchies, and in place of war the indemnity at first demanded by Prussia. To incorporate Schleswig Holstein, Hesse Cassel, Hesse Darmstadt and Brunswick. The population of the Prussian Kingdom would thereby be raised to twenty-five million. The Rhine to constitute the western frontier of Prussia and the Provinces between the Rhine and Meuse to serve as an indemnity to the sovereigns dispossessed by war. An exchange of territory to take place between Baden and Bavaria, which would give the former nearly the whole of the Rheinish palatinate of Saxony and Hanover, and the Duchies of Saxony to conclude the military convention with Prussia. The inhabitants of Louden choosing whether they shall belong to France or Baden, and the population of the Valley of the Sarne to choose between France and the Rheinish Sovereigns.

The La France says the Prussian conditions are the exclusion of Austria from the German Confederation, the exclusive command of the military and naval forces of the Confederation by Prussia, the diplomatic representation of Germany abroad and the annexation to Prussia of the Duchies and part of the territory already occupied.

The La France also says Emperor Napoleon at once sent these conditions to St. Petersburgh and London as raising questions of European interest, which can only be settled by concert of the great Powers.

UTAH

The bill introduced on the 30th ult. by Senator Wade, to regulate the selection of grand and petit juries in the Territory of Utah, and for other purposes, and which was referred to the Committee on Territories, provides that citizens only of the United States shall be competent to serve as jurors in Utah; that they must be selected from the body of the people of the district; that the United States Marshal shall attend all courts, and execute all processes and orders issued; that, when a judge of any district is absent or disabled, his place may be supplied by any of the other judges; that a citizen, aggrieved by the action of a Justice of the Peace or Probate Judge, may appeal to the District Court; that, in election by ballot, it shall be unlawful for any person to place upon a ballot any mark or device by which the voter might be identified, the penalty being $500 fine and six months' imprisonment; that, in all suits in which the United States are not a party, the officers' fees may be charged to the proper parties; that the office of Lieutenant-General in Utah is prohibited, and the laws relative to it annulled. The section relative to the militia requires the enrolling and mustering of these, and a report from the Commander-in-chief to the Secretary of War of the United States; aliens shall not be enrolled. Marriages shall be solemnized by Justices of the Supreme Court and by ministers of the gospel regularly ordained, who are required to sign and deliver certificates, with the names, ages and places of residence.—Leavenworth Times.

(From the Enterprise.)

San Francisco, July 18.

A private telegraphic dispatch received in this city announces the death, on the 13th inst., at Newark, New Jersey, of paralysis, of E. Morris Earl, formerly of this city.

General Halleck has ordered the survey of a new route from the big bend of the Truckee river to Idaho. Colonel Williamson, of the Engineer Corps, is to have charge of the survey, which will commence immediately.

Among the passengers by the steamer for San Pedro to-day is Colonel E. D. Baker, son of the lamented Senator of that name, who goes with his family to reside at Prescott, Arizona, having been appointed United States Quartermaster for that Military District. He served with distinction throughout the war in the East, and though comparatively young in years, is a veteran soldier.

The funeral of the Princess Victoria, of the Hawaain Kingdom, was to take place at Honolulu on the 5th of June.

The demand for exchange and bullion for Thursday's steamer has not fairly commenced yet. Bankers quote coin drafts on Atlantic cities at 2½c.; currency do. at 45c.; premium on gold telegraphic transfers at 3 per cent.

Receipts of bullion from all quarters since July 1st amount to two millions of dollars.

The opposition steamer S. M. Whipple will commence her trips to Sacramento to-morrow or next day.

The Central American Transit Company's steamer Moses Taylor, which left San Juan del Sur July 6th, where she connected with the Santiago de Cuba, arrived here to-day.

About 2 o'clock this morning a fire broke out in the rear of the brick building Nos. 413 and 417 Washington street, opposite the Post-office which entailed a heavy loss on the occupants of the premises. White & Bauer, stationers, stock was damaged about $2,500 by water.—They were insured for $1,500. Ayres, occupying the store No. 416, dealer in stoves and tinware, sustained $7,000 injury. He was insured for $5,000. No. 414, up stairs, was occupied by John Roach, an optician, whose loss is about $2,000, on which there is $1,000 insurance. The building runs through to Merchant street. The rear of White & Bauer's store was occupied by Haynes & Lawton as a warehouse for storage.—They had in the building a large quantity of valuable fancy glassware and clocks, which were badly damaged.—Their loss is estimated at $15,000, on which there was $7,500 insurance. Upstairs, over Hayne & Lawton's, was occupied by Barclay & Graves, dealers in petroleum stoves, whose loss is $1,000. They were not insured. A room in the corner of Barclay & Graves had been used by a party for the purpose of making chemical experiments, and it was here the fire is supposed to have originated. Haynes & Lawton's portion of the building was completely burned out. Ayres' store was pretty badly burned, while White & Bauer's loss was entirely from water. The whole damage by fire and water will probably amount to $30,000.

The last will and testament of William G. Ross, who was shot by Charles Duane, was filed in the Probate Court to-day. He leaves all his property to his wife.

Journalistic Editorial.

Horace Greeley finished the last page of his record and concluding volume of his history of the "American Conflict" at sundown on the eve preceding the "Glorious Fourth." He has still about three or four weeks' labor on it, preparing the index, reading proofs, and preparing the appendix—after which he will "go off fishing somewhere" for a few months, and Russell Young will have charge of the Tribune during his absence.

Manton Marble is at Newport for the summer.

Greeley goes out to his farm at Chappaqua every Friday evening, and remains until Sunday morning.

Gay is on Staten Island.

Young, of the Tribune, is at the Mansion House, Brooklyn Heights.

Bennett ruralizes at Fort Washington, and only visits his office once or twice a week.

Bryant is permanently settled on his country place, and only honors New York with his presence semi-occasionally.

James Brooks is stumping his district for re-election to Congress, and his brother Erastus is helping him.

Theodore Tilton has quitted his Brooklyn home, and is eating fresh eggs and butter up the Hudson.

Raymond is at Washington preparing a thunderbolt for Le Blonde and engineering for the Philadelphia Convention.

Sweetser is making preparations for the funeral of the "Round Table;" and the editor of the Citizen, when not blue-fishing off "Long Island's sea-girt shore," is up to his eyes in work, preparing to bring out this paper as a small, elegant, family evening paper by the first day of next October—the weekly issue to be continued, of course, as usual.

Albert D. Richardson, of the Tribune, is writing an overland and pioneer book for the Hartford people who gave his "Field, Dungeon, and Escape" so profitable a circulation.—N. Y. Citizen.

From the Platte.

The Ft. Kearney Herald of the 12th inst. says the following trains have organized and passed Kearney:

Conductor G. W. Reeves—30 wagons, 41 men, 20 revolvers, 29 guns; bound for Denver and Salt Lake.

Conductor E. Owens—50 wagons, 31 men, 30 revolvers, 19 guns; bound for Salt Lake City.

Conductor J. B. Walton—49 wagons, 52 men, 57 revolvers, 15 guns; bound for Fort Reno and Virginia City.

Conductor L. Fobbs—30 wagons, 36 men, 80 revolvers, 17 guns; bound for Salt Lake.

Conductor J. H. Corlew—52 wagons, 45 men, 46 revolvers, 22 guns, bound for Salt Lake City.

The U. P. Railroad is within 61 miles of Kearney. If the contractors continue to lay a mile and a half of track per day, the road will be finished to that point the latter part of August.

The O. S. L. storehouse at Cottonwood was destroyed accidentally by fire yesterday evening, with 48,000 pounds of grain and other contents. Loss probably $7,000.

The Sioux are concentrating to make war upon the Pawnees this season.

BAYARD Taylor has returned to the East from Colorado.

The Daily Union Vedette

Local and Miscellaneous.

TO ADVERTISERS.—The Vedette is the pioneer daily newspaper of Utah. Its immense circulation in every mining camp and city of Montana and Idaho, (to which it gives the telegraphic despatches a whole week ahead of the Pacific papers,) makes it the most advantageous medium for advertising in these four central Territories.

O. J. GOLDRICK, traveling solicitor, for VEDETTE subscriptions and advertisements, through the Pacific States and Territories.

MAJOR General Sherman is expected in Colorado about the first of September.

GOV. WELLER is stumping Idaho for the Democratic party.

PERSONAL.—Gen. P. E. Connor went out to Stockton, Utah, yesterday, and will be absent several days.

THE Hon James M. Mason, of the ex-Confederate States, is at Niagara City, Canada West.

JAMES P. Luse, esq., late editor of the Lafayette (Ind.) Daily Journal, is about to assume the editorial management of the Chicago Republican.

THE largest income in Chicago is that of P. Schuttler, the wagon manufacturer —$190.771. The second is that of C. H. McCormick, the reaper manufacturer —$153.135.

KEEP in mind that John Kelly gives one of his choice entertainments at the Salt Lake Theatre next Wednesday evening. Read his advertisement.

IN the Rocky Mountain News we find among the dispatches the news of the confirmation of Hon. Green Clay Smith as Governor of Montana.

WE are indebted to Jack Stratman, that prince of News Dealers on the Pacific coast, for a full file of late Eastern daily, weekly and monthly periodicals, for which we are duly grateful.

JUST RECEIVED, by Express, Latest Styles of Ladies' Gaiters, Balmorals and Children's Shoes, at GUERNEY & Co.'s jy20-6t

AN exchange says: "How shall we build a dam to stop this gold drain?" We don't know—Congress don't seem care a dam about it.—Boston Herald.

GEN. Magruder is seeking permission to return to the United States. He says the Imperial Government in Mexico is bankrupt, and the rebel colonies are compelled to seek other quarters.

A sporting duke in England bet £180,000, on one of his horses. That's only $900,000.

ROBINSON, the "bare-backed" circus rider, gets an annual salary of $24,000. For doing more. Menken receives considerably less.—N. Y. World.

THE editor of the Bowling Green Gazette objects to the regular transmission to him of agricultural circulars. He says: "We are no animal propagatist—horsist we are not—as a cowist we make no pretensions—as a sheepist we claim no honors—and we are a hogist to a very limited extent."

WE wonder if the jayhawker and the gambling copperhead banker have exhausted their energies in posting the wandering staff officer on the delinquencies of the late District Commander. If not we would recommend that they continue their dirty work, as we doubt not another wanderer may be along soon. Go in, the Lion of the Lord may honor you with the position of boot-black—you are deserving.

MESSRS. Dance, Stewart & Co., Commission Merchants, Deer Lodge City, Montana, bring their business before the public through the columns of the VEDETTE. They are first class men to deal with, and our shippers will do well to remember them when consigning goods to Montana.

YESTERDAY a miner, who is stopping in this city, lost $500 in legal tender notes. The money was found by Uncle Bob Russell, the popular hair dresser, and handed over to policeman Henry Heath, who found the owner and returned it to him. Officer Heath is a man who would be an honor to the police force of any city.

COMMODORE RODGERS.—This distinguished naval commander arrived in our city by yesterday's Overland coach. He is accompanied by Dr. Peck, Prof. Harkness, Lieut. Miller, Lieut. Whitehead and Ensign Ludlow. We have not learned how long the party will remain in the city, but it is hoped that they will find it convenient to make a visit of several days.

THANKS.—We are under almost infinite obligations to our ever gentlemanly and efficient deputy Postmaster, Mr. Aaron Stein, for a box of most fragrant Havanas, while from the composing-room we hear a general chorus of thanks over another full box which had come to the boys from the same quarter. It is the unanimous wish of the VEDETTE office that our friend Stein may meet with the enviable success and popularity in the Post-office that has ever attended him in the office of the Overland Mail Company.

TOO BAD.—The Richmond Whig comes out in a long editorial in opposition to emigration from the Northern States and the introduction of Northern capital. It says: Alabama, within one year of peace, begins with 5,000 Northern cotton planters. It is frightful to think where she will end. There is not a single Southern State in which this process—this fatal process—of New England colonization is not going on. We must stop it, and from this hour, we must resolve to stop it, before it enwraps and crushes us in its anaconda folds. We do not mean that it must be stopped by a resort to violence or any unwarrantable means, but by refusing, as we have the right to do, to sell our lands, or any part of them, or lease or tenant them out to radical enemies of the South.

GIVING THE INDIANS AMMUNITION.—With the knowledge and approbation of the commissioners at Fort Laramie, the Indians were encouraged in barters ing their robes and moccasins for gun and powder. Having exhausted the supply at the sutlery and all that was in the government magazine, the traders sent to Denver and got a large quantity of powder and succeeded in dealing that out in the most frugal manner to the audacious savages, who would pay any price for war materials. The precious explosives finally became so scarce, before Messrs. Taylor & Co. concluded their childish farce, that a single box of percussion caps would buy an elegant buffalo robe!

Does the War Department at Washington fully understand the definition of a "satisfactory treaty" as improved by our learned Indian president?

The next movement in order is the implied liberty to burn, scalp and murder without distinction of age or sex. When the bloody campaign is over then the sapient agent of the "Great Father" will have accomplished his honorable work.—Ft. Kearney Herald.

POEMS BY MISS CARMICHAEL.—Utah is not the place where we should expect to find the muses taking their abode; and yet that moral Sahara has produced one fair flower. Miss Sarah E. Carmichael appears before the public in a modest volume of poems, published under the auspices of her "Gentile" friends. She is Mormon bred if not Mormon born. The daughter of an humble mechanic, her life has been spent under circumstances most discouraging to poetic inspiration. Denied the advantages of early culture, and debarred from the society of the refined and gifted, this young girl has conquered unpropitious fate and struggled triumphantly to earn a place among the poets of the day. We took up the volume with something of misgiving, and we confess to a happy disappointment, not only in the artistic structure but the intrinsic quality of the "poems." But they exhibit quick poetic sympathies, keen insight, and the enthusiasm of a nature stirred by earnest thought. Miss Carmichael, if not a great is a most musical songstress. If her notes do not kindle enthusiasm they charm the ear.—S. F. Bulletin.

EARTHQUAKE.—At about twenty minutes past ten o'clock on Saturday night, a shock of an earthquake was experienced in this city, so severe as to cause the inmates of some buildings to leave their apartments en dishabille. The vibration was nearly northeast and southwest, and lasted several seconds. A dispatch from San Francisco refers to it as having been a trifling affair in that city. —Stockton Independent, 16th.

THE 11th Ohio Cavalry arrived at the Fort on Sunday, from the Plains. They have been engaged in fighting Indians for the past four years, and on the frontier walls have nobly sustained the glorious old flag. They will be discharged and paid during the week.—Leavenworth Times, 12th.

ROBBED.—We learn from Captain J. H. Dalton, of Company C, Nevada Cavalry, who has just returned from Salt Lake, via Overland Stage, that he was robbed of $100 in gold and $175 in greenbacks, while taking a nap at the International Hotel in Austin.—Virginia City Union, 15th.
